Welcome to Stavanger

Norway's Petroleum Capital

Sometimes referred to as Bergen's little brother, Stavanger offers its own quaint charm, with original dock side warehouses and pretty 18th-Century streets climbing up from a bustling harbor. With a history that stretches back deep into the middle ages, the city offers a delightful mix of the old and new, and a landscape just as diverse, offering sandy beaches, steep mountains and breathtaking fjords. Once a tranquil coastal market town and then later an important fishing port, the discovery of oil offshore in 1969 forever changed the now bustling city's fortunes and landscape.

While it retains something of its small-town roots – an enchanting feeling of light and space – the impact on the local economy is evident. Most nights, especially in summer, the city's waterfront comes alive in the best tradition of port cities, and locals can eat well here, if not inexpensively.

Located at the mouth of the Gandsfjord in southwestern Norway and considered the gateway to the Norwegian fjords, Stavanger offers a rich cultural experience, with vestiges from the Viking Age, including the battle in Hafsfjord in 872 AD found in the region. Enjoy Norway's most international city, from Fargegaten, a colorful street where old wooden houses have been painted with bright colors, to all the natural wonders of the area.

SAFETY ASHORE INFORMATION

While you will find many great experiences ashore, please remain vigilant about your personal safety and the safety of your belongings. As in any large urban tourist destination, you'll want to take some basic precautions to make the most of your time ashore.

- Be aware of your surroundings at all times. Avoid short cuts, narrow alleys and poorly lit streets.
- Avoid wandering from the main shopping and tourist areas into unfamiliar territory. If venturing out independently, have a plan, use only licensed taxi operators.
- Identity/Credit Card theft can occur anywhere. Please remain vigilant in monitoring the safe keeping of your personal information.
- Leave valuables in your room safe and avoid carrying large amounts of cash. Exercise caution when using ATMs. Cameras and handbags should be carried close to your body or concealed out of sight.
- Leave air transportation tickets and other travel documents in your room safe. When going ashore, each adult is required to carry a Driver's license, passport or other government-issued photo ID. Note: Some ports may require guests to carry passports ashore.
- Most crimes are easier to commit in dark unlit areas. When going ashore at night, please be extra vigilant about your personal safety.
