WELCOME TO KAHULUI!

Maui is the most visited of all Hawaiian Islands. It is sparsely populated supporting less than one-tenth of the state's population. It is home to pineapple, sugar cane, cattle ranches, and rain forests. Kahului was a sugar town by 1880; however, real growth has only come during the last 20 years. Also of distinction is Haleakala, the largest dormant volcano in the world, consisting of 30,000 feet of hardened lava rising from the ocean floor capped by a huge crater. Maui is the second largest island in the Hawaiian chain. It is estimated that 50% of the world's humpback whales return to Maui's warm waters where they were born and to mate. Kahului is located on the northern coast of the island on Kahului Bay.
