WELCOME TO NAWILIWILI!

Kauai's first settlers arrived around 500 A.D., approximately 500 years before the rest of the islands were settled. Through a succession of kings, the island prospered. Captain James Cook landed on Kauai first, coming ashore at Waimea in 1778. Kauai is the smallest of the four major islands covering 552 square miles. Kauai is the oldest and most northerly of the Hawai'ian Islands, famous for Waimea Canyon, the "Grand Canyon of the Pacific." Kauai's craggy mountains, gorgeous valleys, and many breezy beaches have managed to avoid excessive development. Much of Kauai looks just like it did when the first Polynesians paddled up to the shore. Of course, there are resorts, hotels, and some of the island's best golf courses, however, no building on Kauai is allowed to rise above the level of the coconut trees.
